Information is added at the end.

Mexico City, January 19, 2026. - Grupo Carso, S.A.B. de C.V. ("Grupo Carso") (BMV: GCARSO) informs the investing public that today, through its subsidiary Zamajal, S.A. de C.V., it signed a binding agreement with Lukoil International Upstream Holding B.V. and Lukoil International Holding GMBH (collectively, "Lukoil"), to acquire, once certain conditions have been met, including obtaining the corresponding governmental and corporate authorizations, 100% of the capital stock of its subsidiary Fieldwood Mexico B.V., which in turn directly and indirectly owns 100% of the capital stock of (i) Fieldwood Energy de México, S. de R.L. de C.V., and (ii) Fieldwood Energy E&P México, S. de R.L. de C.V. ("Fieldwood Mexico") (the "Transaction").

Fieldwood Mexico is the operating entity and owner of a 50% stake in the Ichalkil & Pokoch fields ("Contract Area 4"), a contract area located off the coast of Campeche. On June 20, 2024, Grupo Carso, through its subsidiary Zamajal, in which it holds a 79% stake, formalized the acquisition of Petrobal Upstream Delta 1, S.A. de C.V. (now Mx Dlta NRG 1, S.A. de C.V.), owner of the other 50% stake in Contract Area 4.

On January 7, 2016, the Mexican government, through Comisión Nacional de Hidrocarburos, signed contract CNH-R01-L02-A4/2015 with the consortium formed by Fieldwood Energy E&P México, S. de R.L. de C.V., as operating partner, and Petrobal Upstream Delta

1, S.A. de C.V. (now Mx Dlta NRG 1, S.A. de C.V.), as financial partner, for the exploration and extraction of hydrocarbons under the production sharing model corresponding to the aforementioned Contract Area 4, a contract area located in shallow waters with an approximate area of 58 km<sup>2</sup> off the coast of Campeche.

The purchase price for 100% of the Company's share capital is US$270 million, in addition to assuming the obligation to pay a US$330 million debt owed by the company to Lukoil itself as the seller. These figures and payment terms are subject to closing adjustments in accordance with the terms of the agreement.

The completion of the Transaction is subject to the fulfillment of certain conditions, including obtaining (i) the relevant regulatory approvals in Mexico (including, without limitation, from Comisión Nacional Antimonopolio (CNA) and Secretaría de Energía) and (ii) in particular, the express and specific authorization of the Transaction by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) of the United States of America.

With this transaction, Grupo Carso, through its subsidiary Zamajal, consolidates its majority and operational stake in this field, reaffirming its commitment to the hydrocarbon extraction sector in Mexico.
